

FAITH CONFESSION: PEACE

Having been made righteous by faith, I have peace with God through Jesus Christ, through whom I have gained access by faith into this grace in which I now stand. And I boast in the hope of the glory of God. I cast all my care on Him; for he cares for me. I let the peace of Christ rule in my heart, since as a member of one body I was called to peace.

The Lord will keep me in perfect peace as I keep my mind stayed on Him, because I trust in Him. Lord, you establish peace for me; all that I have accomplished, you have done for me. I will live in peaceful dwelling places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest. Lord, my sleep shall be sweet as you cover and hide me under the shadow of your wing.

As much as it is possible, I will live peaceably with everyone. I will not worry! I will not be anxious for anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, I will make my request known to God; and the peace of God will keep my heart and mind through Christ Jesus. I will think on those things that are true, honest, just, pure, and whatsoever is lovely and of a good report. My heavenly father, the God of peace is always with me. For God has not given me a spirit of fear; but of power, and love, and of a sound mind.

The mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed, but the Lord's kindness shall not depart from me; neither shall His covenant of peace be removed. For the kingdom of God is righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. I rest in safety because Jesus is my Wonderful Counselor and Prince of Peace. He is Jehovah Shalom, my peace: my soundness, completeness, and wholeness. He provides for me a life of healing, prosperity, preservation and deliverance, with nothing missing and nothing broken. Hallelujah to the Lamb of God!

Amen!
