

HOPE

Daily Faith Confession

- I trust in God; I will give Him thanks forever and wait on His name, for it is good. His hope is that I have the best of heaven, right here, now, on the earth. For that reason, He sent Jesus, who is my hope.
- My desire and confident expectation of good [hope] is birthed by the Spirit of God and supported by the Word of God.
- God has sworn by Himself and confirmed it with an oath so that I might have a strong consolation as I have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope that is set before me: which hope I have as an anchor for my soul, both certain and unwavering.
- I put my hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, and especially of those who believe.
- My heart rejoices in the Lord because I trust in His Holy name. His unfailing love is with me and surrounds me, even as I put my hope in Him alone.
- I will not allow anything to cause me to doubt that God is always for me. Nor will I let anyone convince me that God's Word does not Work for me.
- I will draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of hope, and I will hold fast the confession of my faith without wavering, for He who promised is faithful.
- The God of hope fills me with all joy and peace in believing, that I may flourish and excel in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.
- Because I hope for what is not yet manifested in the natural, with perseverance, I wait eagerly for it as [God gives me endurance and] the Spirit intercedes for me with groaning too deep for words, according to the will of God.
- As I confess the Word of God over every situation and circumstance of life, I rejoice with great expectation that I have what I say in the spirit and it will, without fail, manifest in the natural as I place a demand on my faith.
- I will not fear what man can do unto me for God has said He will never leave, nor forsake me.
- I will imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises of God. I will stand and endure in hope, believing that it shall surely come to pass.

Amen!
